

Which five Titles has the highest Total Unit Price?

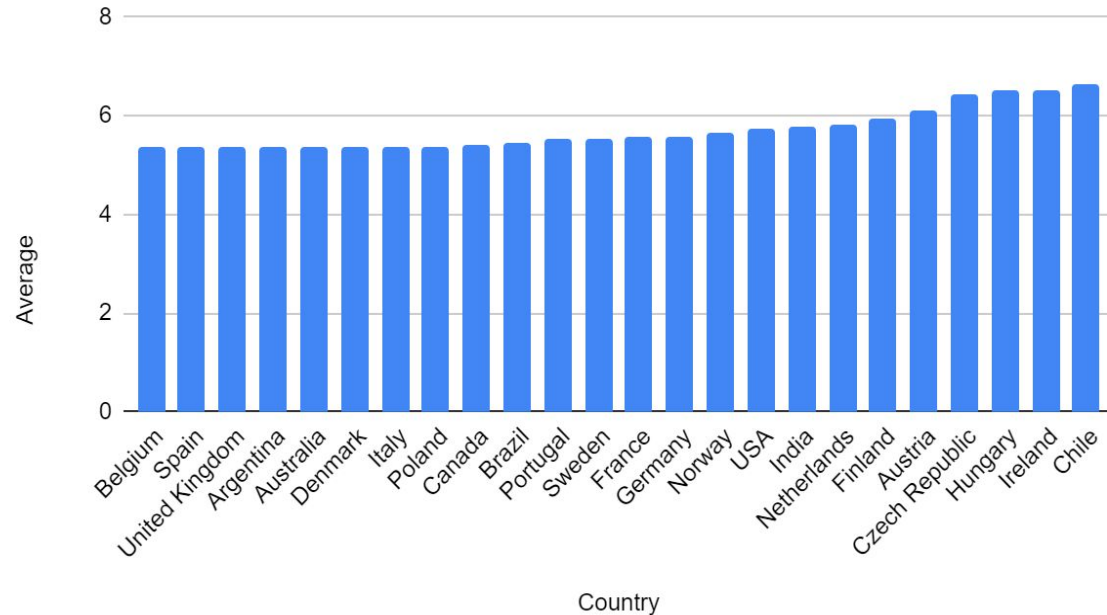

Sum of Unit Price by Title

Beginning with “Greatest Hits”, they had the highest in the amount 56.43. From there, the next four titles were close, ranging from 51.74 to 47.76.

What countries has the lowest average?

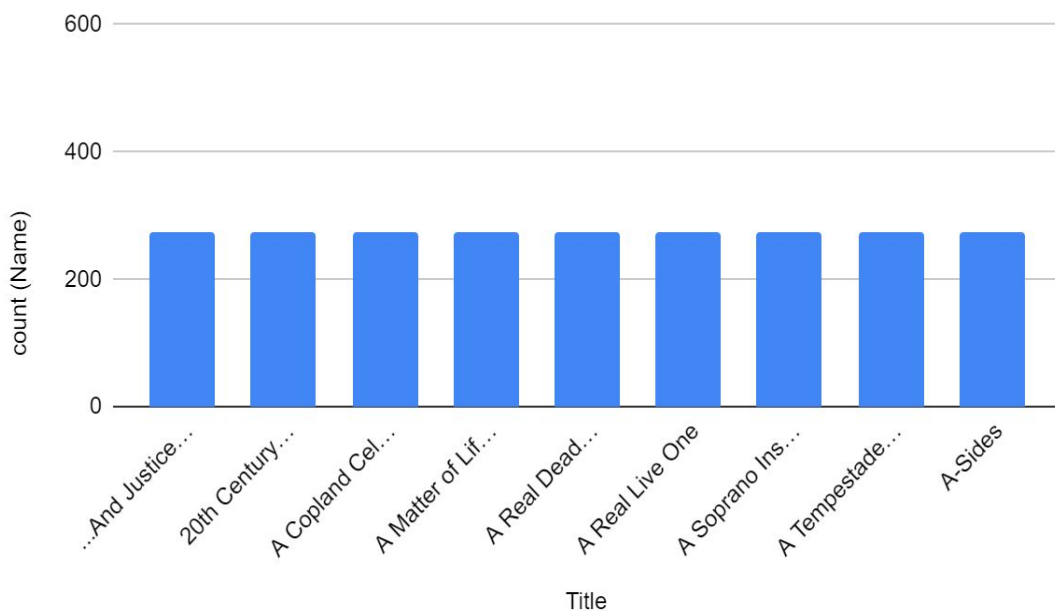

Total Average by Country

From Belgium to Poland, these countries have the lowest average of Customers. From there, you can begin to see an incline starting with Canada up to China.

How many Names are there in each Title?

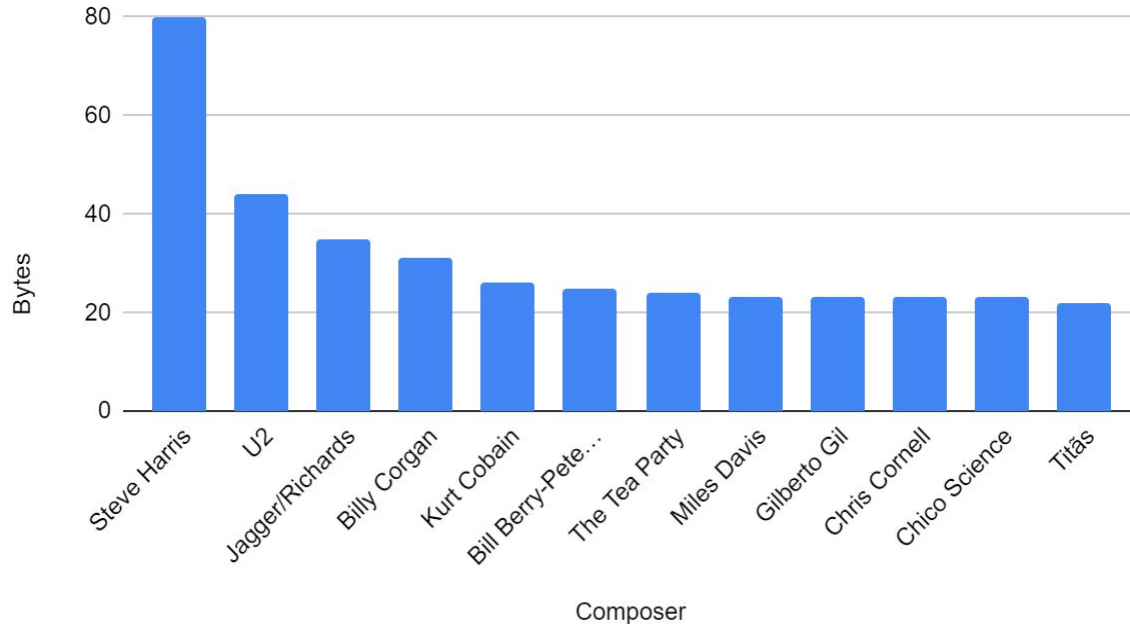

Count of Names by Title

Upon review, each and every title is the same: they all have 275 names. It is interesting to know that each title is the same when it comes how many names there are.

Which Composer had the highest Bytes?

Bytes vs. Composer

Steve Harris is sitting at number 1 for having the highest bytes in the track. Steve has 80 bytes while the next composer, U2, has 44. You can see on the graph how it begins to decline down to Titas. Nobody comes close to Steve Harris in this category.